

Statement of Faith Against Modern Slavery

Stuart McMillan

President, Uniting Church in Australia

2 December 2015

The Uniting Church in Australia believes that all people are precious and entitled to live with dignity because they are God's children.

Each person's life and rights need to be protected or the human community - the reflection of God - is diminished.

All forms of slavery and forced labour are an abuse of human rights and contrary to the gospel of God's love in Christ for all human beings and the earth.

The Uniting Church in Australia has a long-standing commitment to advocacy for human rights through our own councils and agencies, and in solidarity with our partner churches around the world.

We proudly support this network for the elimination of human trafficking and slavery which is an abomination of human rights and dignity.
